

SHAH E KAUNAIN ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY SAHARSA BIHAR

Bridging the Gap between Tradition and Modernity

Educating hearts and enlightening minds from an Islamic perspective

In a world where education is a beacon of hope and empowerment, there remains a significant gap for Muslim girls seeking a blend of traditional Islamic teachings and modern education. Our hearts ache with the realization that many young Muslim women are deprived of an educational environment that nourishes their faith while preparing them for the challenges of the contemporary world. Thus, we present our ambitious project: the establishment of an Islamic university exclusively dedicated to Muslim girls, with faculties of medicine, nursing, and pharmacy, along with a free specialty hospital.

A Dream of Empowerment and Faith

Imagine a sanctuary of learning where the Quranic verses echo in every corner, where the legacy of Islamic scholars intertwines seamlessly with the latest advancements in science, technology, and humanities. Our dream is to create a haven where Muslim girls can flourish intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually.

Nurturing Faith in the Heart of Education

Central to our project is the desire to instill a profound love for Islam in the hearts of our students. We envision a curriculum that not only imparts academic knowledge but also fosters a deep connection with the teachings of the Quran and the traditions of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Our visionary mission:

Our journey begins with a clear vision and mission. We envision an Islamic university that upholds the values of compassion, integrity, and excellence. Our mission is to empower Muslim girls through education, nurturing leaders who will make a positive impact in their communities and beyond our pioneer Hazrat maulana Gulam Mohammed Watanwi Says “one educated girl can evolve entire generation”.

A Promise of Hope

As we embark on this journey, we carry with us the hopes and dreams of countless Muslim girls yearning for a brighter future. Our project is more than just a university; it is a beacon of hope, a sanctuary of knowledge, and a testament to the power of faith and education. In the words of Rumi, "The garden of the world has no limits, except in your mind." Together, let us cultivate a garden where Muslim girls can blossom and thrive, spreading their fragrance of faith and knowledge to the ends of the earth.

Our Ambitions:

The establishment of Islamic universities reflects a growing recognition of the importance of higher education within an Islamic framework. By fostering Islamic values, providing quality education, and bridging the gap between tradition and modernity, these institutions contribute to the intellectual and moral development of individuals within the Muslim community and beyond.

Need of a Medical Colleges for Muslim Girls in Backward Regions of Bihar, India

In the context of five Muslim dominate districts of northern Bihar, India, where backwardness prevails in various aspects of life, in an area of 5K square kilometers, there is no medical college and no charitable hospital for the needy. Therefore, the establishment of a medical college is very crucial, holds significant importance, particularly for Muslim girls. SHAH E KAUNAIN ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY aims provide them with opportunities to pursue careers in healthcare. By becoming doctors, nurses, or other healthcare professionals, they can directly contribute to addressing the healthcare disparities prevalent in region. Join us in our mission to empower Muslim girls through education, and together, let us sow the seeds of a brighter tomorrow.

SHAH E KAUNAIN ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY

To Illuminate Muslim Minds in Bihar's Backward Regions

By: [newspaper], Staff Writer

In a groundbreaking development, plans are underway to establish an Islamic university named as Shah-e-Kaunain Islamic University in the backward areas of Bihar, promising to be a beacon of enlightenment and progress for the region's residents. The initiative, spearheaded by a coalition of Muslim scholars like Gulam Mohammed Wastanwi, Maulana Haroun and many others, aims to address the educational disparities prevalent in the region and provide access to higher-quality education for girls rooted in Islamic principles.

The university, which is set to be established in a strategic location accessible to residents of Bihar's marginalized communities, holds the promise of transforming lives and uplifting entire communities.

a curriculum that integrates Islamic studies with contemporary modern academic disciplines.

Speaking about the significance of the project, Maulana Mohammed Mujib, a prominent scholar and one of the driving forces behind the initiative, emphasized the transformative impact of education on marginalized communities. "By establishing an Islamic university in Bihar's backward areas at the focal point of five Muslim-dominated districts of Bihar Saharsa, Supaul, Madhepura, Madhubani, and Darbhanga., we are not only providing access to quality education but also empowering individuals to become agents of positive change in their communities," remarked Shaikh Mujib Rahmani.

The establishment of the Islamic university has been met with widespread enthusiasm and support from residents of Bihar, who see it as a long-awaited opportunity to break the cycle of poverty and ignorance that has plagued the region for generations. Many see the university as a symbol of hope and a testament to the resilience and determination of the Muslims.

In the words of one Muslim, "The establishment of the Islamic university is a ray of hope amidst the darkness of ignorance. It is a testament to the power of Islamic education besides modern education to transform lives and uplift communities. We eagerly await the day when its doors will open to welcome us all."
